Answer Key

Question	Correct Response	Explanation	Rule
Q1	B	There must be at least 2 FIRST Leadership Award Interviewers present during an interview
Q2	C	Interviewers should never contact a student directly. The coach/mentor should be contacted to coordinate scheduling the interview with the student
Q3	B	There always must be a minimum of 2 interviewers, even for remote interviews.
Q4	A	One adult over the age of 18 should be present for the remote interview. This person does not participate in the interview.
Q5	D	The interviewer is only responsible for interviewing the student.
Q6	B	The interviewer only submits notes into the Judges Portal after the interview has taken place
Q7	A, C, and D	Nomination essays are not written by the student, therefore they should not be evaluated for spelling, punctuation, or grammar.
Q8	B	10 minutes is the maximum time for an interview.
Q9	B	The FIRST Leadership Award Interviewer does not need to enter their notes right away. However, they should do so as soon as possible, within 48 hours of the Interview. Waiting too long to enter notes could mean the interviewer may forget specific details about the student and their overall impression, which could be detrimental to the student when the reviewers are selecting finalists.
Q10	B	Each interviewer can input their own notes into the system. However, both interviewers should come to consensus on the ratings listed at the top of the evaluation sheet.
Q11	A	Interviewers have access to sensitive information and must take this training prior to serving in this volunteer role.
Q12	C	All Finalists must be reported in the Judges Portal
Q13	B	Although most of the interview topics should be FIRST focused, getting an understanding of the students activities outside of FIRST , especially as it relates to the Dean's List criteria, gives a full picture of the student and their experiences and achievements
Q14	B	Interviewers should never make the determination on student eligibility. Questions about eligibility should be directed to FTC-LeadershipAward@firstinspires.org .
